Action for which commended (Date and place of action must be stated)	Recommended by	Honour or Reward	(To be left blank)
On the night of 10/11 June 1944 two platoons of B Coy with supporting arms made a reconnaissance in force through a strongly held German defensive position, at the Bridge at Putot-en-Besson. Cpl (A/Sgt) Frost was acting as Platoon Sergeant of the left flanking Platoon. Before reaching the line of the railway, his Pl comd was made a casualty. Frost immediately took hold of the Platoon and showed outstanding leadership. He personally accounted for three of the enemy, and by coolly sighting his nearest Bren gun enabled his Platoon to continue forward when pinned down by vicious cross-fire and mortar "stands".	Sgd. the heavy fire to the safety of his own lines and the R.A.P., thereby saving his life.

Throughout this action Frost remained an outstanding example to his men, and in saving the life of Ives showed devotion beyond the call of duty.
