Captain Dore has been Adjutant of this Battalion since 18th September, 1944. During this time he has performed his duties excellently. His industry, initiative and perseverance in the carrying out of his various tasks have contributed in a large measure to the success of the Battalion. His ability to maintain a high standard of administration under the most adverse conditions has been good contribution. In the performance of his duties it was necessary for him to travel back and forth through the battalion area; on these occasions he often came under shell and mortar fire. He has at all times displayed determination, resourcefulness and complete contempt for weariness in maintaining touch with Companies and Brigade, thereby ensuring that maximum efficiency was maintained.	W.
